The Daily Press

HONGKONG, APRIL 15TH, 1891.

This victory snatched by Sir JOSEPH PRASSE and the misguided persons who followed him into the lobby must have been totally unexpected. The motion against the Indian opium traffic, which has long been an annual farce, stood fifth on the order book of the House of Commons for the 12th March, and it was considered doubtful whether it would be reached, a doubt justified by events apparently; but the mover seems to have got another day, and in a small house secured a majority for it. The motion was carried by 160 votes against 130, giving less than 300 members present. Although the motion has not the force of a Bill it is much to be regretted the thin attendance in the Commons should have enabled Sir JOSEPH PRASSE and his following to carry a resolution which if passed into law would work much mischief to the Indian revenue and trade without effecting any good to any people or individuals. The effect of this motion, if enforced by legislation, would be to put a stop to the production of opium in India and Benares and to restrict the export from Malwa. It is needless now to repeat the stale arguments which these senseless and ignorant busybodies have for more than two decades been iterating and reiterating against the practice of opium smoking. They have been dispensed time after time, and it has been shown by most experienced medical testimony that opium smoking is less detrimental than drink drinking. If the anti-opium fanatics were not blinded by their own determination to do rank injustice and sacrifice the interests of India for an issue idea, they would recognise that opium smoking and opium eating are two very different things. They proceed on the assumption—contradicted a thousand times—that the Chinese are poisoned with Indian opium, leading the British public to believe they eat the drug. Worked on by this deception the people at home subscribe money to keep up an agitation for the abolition of a trade they are taught to regard as scarcely less abominable than the slave trade. If they could be undeceived the flow of subscriptions would speedily be checked, and the agitation against the opium trade die out. But public interest is easily sustained by constant misrepresentations of fact and meetings at which excited and pernicious orators claim on the inquiry of forcing upon China a drug she loathes. As a sample of the slanders uttered and written by these persons there is an article in the last issue of the Friend of China in which the writer claims that the Government raised in India as poisonous as possible, and says that from the time of WARREN HASTINGS the most highly skilled chemists could not have been employed at such salaries by the Government for the purpose of improving the drug, or, in other words, of making it stronger and more "poisonous." The writer must have known perfectly well when he penned this libel that Government inspection was established to preserve the purity of the drug and prevent its adulteration by tricky cultivators.

Argument with so-called humanitarians is vain. They are deaf to reason, blind to fact. If it be demonstrated that the so-called evil they wish to remove will, as in the case of the Contagious Diseases Ordinance, be replaced by something far more shocking and disastrous, in their fanaticism, they will be compelled to import their vice instead of their opium. Or, what is equally probable, Persia and Turkey would increase their production of the drug, and the present measure probably offers as good a chance of success as any law could do, short of the revival of Sir RICHARD MACDONELL's regulations.

The O. & S. steamer Ocean, with American mail left San Francisco on the 2nd Inst. for Yokohama and Hongkong.

M. Charles Ferry, a brother of M. Jules Ferry, the French statesman, arrived here yesterday on the M. M. steamer Delta from Haiphong.

The U. S. gunboat Porpoise arrived at Nagasaki on the 2nd Inst. from Tientsin, and will be docked for repairs before proceeding to Chemulpo.

Captain H. M. Jones, H. B. M.'s Minister Resident to the Court of Siam, arrived here yesterday on the Soudan Phrayang on a trip for the benefit of his health.

The Agents (Messrs. Butterfield & Swaine) in the U. S. Consulate at Siam, arrived here yesterday on the 20th Inst.

We understand that in consequence of the unbroken silence of the proposed football club under Rugby rules, Scotland v. The World, which was to have taken place to-morrow afternoon, has been scratched.

A lot of Crown land at Tak-tak-tai, with the Police Dock, was put up to public auction on Monday afternoon and was bought by Mr. H. N. Moore for $7,500, or about five per cent. The annual Crown rents $1,034.

According to an announcement in the Japanese papers of the 16th inst., the submarine telegraph connecting Kiushiu with Iki-shima and Tashima has been purchased by the Japanese Government for the sum of $1,000,000.

Following an announcement in the Japanese papers of the 16th inst., the submarine telegraph connecting Kiushiu with Iki-shima and Tashima was cut.

The Hyojo News say—Another instance of the hospitality with which the Japanese treat shipwrecked mariners was shown by the exceeding kindness which the crew of the ill-fated Queen Elizabeth received from the almost dead sailors who generously gave up their share of the rations to the wretched survivors.

In view of the present condition of the water supply, the proposed football club under Rugby rules, Scotland v. The World, which was to have taken place to-morrow afternoon, has been scratched.

To read the unadorned history of the Anti-Opium Society's organ any one might imagine that the whole population of China was being slowly poisoned, and that its least effect was the destruction of all virility in the race, instead of which it is everywhere giving tokens of increased virility and protractiveness. The vice, moreover,—for only habit of self-indulgence involving outlay both of time and money must be admitted a vice—is not, in a public sense, more injurious than tobacco smoking. It does not drive its votaries into the protraction of violence and outrages like alcohol, and so long as it is indulged in too freely does not work any material injury to the smoker's health, much less to that of his descendants. It would be more hopeless for the Chinese Government to think of putting an end to the practice of opium smoking than it would be for the British Government to endeavour to prohibit indulgence in spirits.

The drink bill of the United Kingdom is greater than China's opium account, and alcohol says its thousands where opium kills its tens.

If anti-opium agitators desire a mission let them first look at home and see if they can extract the beam from the British eye before they try to remove the mote from the Celestial organ of vision.

The Japanese Government have no intention evidently of dismantling all their foreign employés as they are engaging additional assistants. The Japanese say—An Imperial Ordinance has been published, in connection with a law passed by the Diet, authorising the Treasury to make certain special contributions to the expenses of the various departments in the course of their operations.

The CHAIRMAN said—Gentlemen, this meeting has been called for the purpose of passing the resolution in the notice which are drawn up in accordance with what was agreed at the general meeting of the Anti-Opium League.

The CHAIRMAN said—Association all new shares must be offered to the then existing shareholders in proportion to the number of old shares held by them and fractions parts of new shares certificates will be issued for a sufficient number of which certificates will be exchangeable for scrip for one whole share.

The CHAIRMAN said—The resolution will be submitted at the date of the confirmation of the special resolution, on which date therefore the transfer books of the Company will be closed.

If the resolutions now submitted are passed a confirmatory meeting will be required to be held after an interval of not less than fourteen days.

The CHAIRMAN said—Gentlemen, this meeting has any objection to the resolution.

Mr. GILLIES seconded.

Carried unanimously.

Mr. GILLIES proposed—That the first line of the first article of Article XXI.

of the proposed resolution be altered to read:

"That the shareholders of the Company shall resolutely stand by the Company in its efforts to overcome the difficulties of the
